Live Session

Self-Paced Session

Dec. 7

Welcome & Introduction – 11:00 AM EDT to 12:00 PM EDT

Monday

This session is provided to all new cohorts as an introduction to the program and the tools used to deliver this online content. Attendance is recommended but not mandatory. Information provided during this session will assist you in navigating all components and timelines within this program.

Professional Conduct – Self-Paced Session

This session focuses on the development of professional attitudes, conduct and relationships with other regulatory and law enforcement agencies. It includes discussion of the public's expectation of investigators, human relations skills that will enhance the investigator's ability to deal with people, and the common characteristics of regulatory enforcement personnel.

Dec. 8

Principles of Administrative Law and the Regulatory Process – Self-Paced Session

Tuesday

The session provides the basic guidelines to understanding administrative law and procedure and the regulatory process. It identifies the sources of administrative law, the most accepted standard of proof used in administrative proceedings, the subjects most often challenged in administrative hearings, the criteria courts use to ensure an administrative action is legal when a challenge or appeal is made, and the differences between centralized, independent and semi-autonomous boards.

Dec. 9

Investigative Process – 1:00 PM EDT to 3:00 PM EDT

Wednesday

This session teaches a basic understanding of the investigative process including the intake of complaints, investigative planning and the execution of an investigative plan. It identifies the elements of the complaint process, the standards of acceptance, the methods for receiving and reviewing complaint information, investigative tools used to conduct administrative investigations and sources for obtaining information used to implement an investigative plan.
